

WHO ARE WE?

We - you and me - are Semiahmoo Arts!

Semiahmoo Arts Society (SAS) is an umbrella organization for the arts serving the Semiahmoo Peninsula, fostering a vibrant, inclusive, and sustainable arts community. Semiahmoo Arts, one of the Community Arts Councils in BC, has been operating arts and cultural programs since our formation in 1970. This focus has increased since SAS was offered the opportunity to run the Arts Wing at the South Surrey Recreation and Arts Centre in 2014.

THE INVITATION

Our Open Houses are a foundational part of our Community Access Programming (CAP), offered free of charge to our South Surrey/White Rock community, aiming to nourish access among multiple underserved populations.

Since inception, the SAS CAP benefits over 10,000 individuals per year, offering a variety of arts activities to a variety of ages.

OVER THE PAST 12 MONTHS:

- 8 art exhibitions
- 10 art hive workshops
- 3 open house events
- Number of people directly benefited: 10,000
- Total number of registered participants: 5,000

Our next Open House is Saturday, April 5th 10 AM to 3 PM.

The schedule for the day includes: music, pottery demonstrations, two visual arts workshops (one painting and one pottery), an Art Hive, free Life Drawing session with a draped model, and new this time--a student craft market, supporting our patrons in learning about pricing and selling their works.

Dates for the other three 2025 Open Houses are Sunday June 22, Saturday Sept 20 and Saturday Dec 6.

BENEFITS FOR OUR SPONSORS

- Support underserved individuals and communities
- Increase Brand Exposure to a diverse audience
- Visibility across multiple platforms
- Connect with the local arts community

Our quarterly Open House marketing in the Peace Arch News circulates over 25,000 copies to homes in the White Rock and South Surrey Area. In a small neighbourhood like ours, people instantly recognize the changes you're helping to make possible, resulting in a positive reputation for you and your brand.

We invite you to join us on our journey creating a healthy creative art community in 2025 and for years to come!
